WILLIAM J. COUGHLIN MEMORIAL

NOMINATION FORM

NOMINATION CRITERIA

The Rome Sports Hall of Fame is accepting recommendations for honorees for its William J. Coughlin Memorial, which was established in 2004 to perpetually recognize Rome athletes whose "light shined far too briefly."

The Coughlin Memorial was established with funds contributed in his memory. Bill, a former RFA coach and later director of athletics, was killed when he was hit by a car while training for a marathon.

Anyone interested in recommending a person for enshrinement in the Coughlin Memorial may use this form and return it to any member of the Rome Sports Hall of Fame selection committee or to the address on back of this brochure.
